

JP CHECKOUT LIST

- Complete the online application for advanced degree during first week of term in which thesis submission is intended
- Obtain copyright approval from journal if including published paper in thesis.
- Submit defensible draft 2-3 weeks in advance of the defense. Email Lea Fraser your draft and to MIT Department Headquarters (except MIT Biology).
- Submit Signed Notice of Doctoral Dissertation Defense to Kris Kipp if defending at MIT, and Lea Fraser if defending at WHOI. If you are defending at WHOI, a room reservation and request for refreshments should be arranged with Lea Fraser.
- Submit final thesis to WHOI and MIT with original signatures in black ink on title page. Do not bind the thesis in any way that would mark the pages. Originals must be printed on paper that meets the requirements of the MIT Institute Archives.
- Send PDF version of thesis to Lea Fraser for WHOI.
- Send 200-word abstract in a Word (.doc) file to Lea Fraser.
- Complete reproduction form and turn in to Lea Fraser with final thesis.
- Contact Lea Fraser to schedule a checkout appointment by the thesis due date.
- Return office/lab keys, WHOI credit card, MBLWHOI library books (if applicable).
- Print your last pay stub for tax purposes using WHOI's Employee Online system (if applicable).
- Pay MIT Library Processing Fee.
- Submit 7W Thesis Defense Form when turning in thesis to MIT Biology Department – Course 7 students only.
- Return library books and theses borrowed from the Student Center.
- Contact the APO Administrative Associate, Martha Bridgers at 508-289-2200 to schedule an exit interview with the WHOI Dean and Associate Dean.